
THE LOWER PARISH OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VA.
WITH ADJOINING PORTIONS OF NORFOLK COUNTY.

"The East side of Nansemond River from the present glebe downwards to the mouth of the said river shall be called the East Parish." Laws of Virginia, March 1642/3 18th Charles 1st

Water courses shown by full lines are those of today; dotted lines show where existing contours indicate what may have been the former course. The former name is used.

The land grants shown are those, prior to 1700, which are verified by metes and bounds as well as by closure of the surveys recorded in the Books of Patents in the Land Office.

The roads shown are those which correspond with the earliest roads known.

+ Indicates a Church existing before 1820 } Fry & Jefferson.
✳ Indicates a Mill existing before 1820
Indicates a Pond existing in 1929
Indicates what may have been an Island but has not been identified as such by name.

ELIZABETH CITY SHIRE	1634
NEW NORFOLK COUNTY	1636
UPPER NORFOLK COUNTY	1637
NANSEMOND COUNTY	1642

Copyright 1946 J.H. Granbery. All rights reserved.

G3884
.S9
1642
.G7